Five Reasons Why Travel Insurance is Important

- 1. Life Is unpredictable. Some trips need to be cancelled. With travel insurance, you don't necessarily have to pay for a trip you are unable to take. Instead, enjoy more confidence knowing that you stay a step ahead of unpredictable situations before and during your trip.
- 2. Don't let sickness stop you. From coughs in the crowds to exotic eats that don't agree with your stomach, sickness happens. It's less scary to be sick with travel insurance by your side to help you through the troubles.
- 3. Your health insurance has limits. When you travel outside the U.S., you may be leaving your health insurance at home. Many U.S. plans (including Medicare and Medicaid) don't cover medical care costs. Why risk it when a medical evacuation can cost $50,000+?

4. Forgot your medication? Lost or forgotten medication can set off an alarm when you're far from home. Let travel insurance help you locate a pharmacy to purchase a new Rx. It's always nerve-racking when something goes wrong. But when you're in a foreign country, you don't want to face any kind of crisis alone.

5. Lost luggage can leave you in a lurch. Travel Insurance benefits can help you replace needed items if your bags are delayed, damaged, lost or stolen while you're away. With reimbursement for your trip essentials, you can still suit up for wherever your journey takes you next.

Covid-19 Coverage

1. Emergency medical care for an insured who becomes ill with COVID-19 while on their trip (if your plan includes the Emergency Medical Care benefit and does not include the Epidemic Coverage Endorsement)
2. Trip cancellation and trip interruption if an insured, or that insured's traveling companion or family member, becomes ill with COVID-19 either before or during the insured's trip (if your plan includes Trip Cancellation or Trip Interruption benefits, as applicable, and does not include the Epidemic Coverage Endorsement)
